

RALLIES PLANNED BY SALEM REPUBLICANS

New York Address To Be Outstanding G.O.P. Utterance

HOOVER SPEECH WILL SUM UP ALL VITAL SUBJECTS

Monday Is Day Set For Delivering Address
In Gotham

TAXATION, STABILITY IN TRADE, SUBJECTS

Reply to Democrats Is Also Expected From Nominee

Washington, Oct. 20.—Determined to make his New York address the outstanding utterance of his campaign, Herbert Hoover will sum up the Republican issues on which he seeks the presidency, discuss the relationship of government to business and reply directly to Democratic assaults upon the financial record of the Coolidge administration.

This was learned at Republican headquarters here today as Hoover completed a final draft of the speech. He leaves early in the afternoon for New York city aboard a special train. Hoover will rest at a downtown hotel over night, spend Monday conferring with New York leaders and speak at 9 o'clock. (Eastern Standard time) in Madison Square Garden.

The program Hoover will offer to American interests undoubtedly will include pledges to use every agency of his administration, if elected, to:

Financial Stability
Promote financial stability by economy in expenditures, wise taxation, and sound fiscal finance, including rapid reduction of the public debt and additional tax reduction as the federal income permits.

Promote business stability by steps to eliminate periodical fluctuations in trade, by government co-operation in eliminating industrial waste and by maintaining the tariff as a bulwark against cheaper standards of living abroad.

Promote stability of employment by the same steps and by the expansion of foreign trade and the opening of new markets abroad.

To Make Replies
The Republican nominee undoubtedly will use his visit to New York to reply directly to at least one of the campaign issues raised by his Democratic rival, Governor Smith—the question of Republican economy. Hoover probably possesses a greater amount of governmental statistics, dealing with finances, than any other man in the Coolidge administration. He scarcely will fail to use.

SUPREME COURT TO HEAR PLEA

Convicted Slayer Granted
Stay of Execution
For Two Weeks

Toledo, Oct. 20.—That the fight to save the life of Charles (Stanley) Hoppe, convicted murderer of his seven-year-old cousin, Dorothy Slesagowski, will be carried to the Ohio supreme court in the event the court of appeals to reverse the decision of the Lucas county common pleas court in sentencing Hoppe to death in the electric chair was indicated by the condemned man's attorneys here today.

Hoppe was granted a stay of execution late yesterday by judges of the ninth court of appeals who then took the case under advisement. The condemned man's reprieve extended the date of execution from October 26 to November 2.

Final decision of the court on Hoppe's appeal is expected to be announced within a week. Hoppe's plea for a reversal of the lower court's action was based principally on the contention that the court had erred in not considering evidence of insanity as a mitigating circumstance.

No answering argument was presented by the state.

Akron Police Arrest Man For Robbery

Akron, Oct. 20.—A man giving his name as George Preston, 28, of Pittsburgh was held here on a highway robbery charge today following his arrest last night by Patrolman Harry Stewart. A short time after he was alleged to have held up an East End restaurant here.

Police say he was the second lone bandit arrested here within 24 hours. Robert Knapp, 25, was to be arraigned in police court today on a robbery charge. He is charged with attempting to hold up three men. J. W. Edelf, 35, was shot in the hand during the encounter.

DEM LEADERS ARE JUBILANT

Heavy Registration Seen
As Excellent Omen
For Victory.

Columbus, Oct. 20.—Jubilant over the increased registration noted throughout the state, which they claim indicates a definite trend on the part of new or hitherto unregistered voters toward the Democratic nominee, leaders at state Democratic headquarters here today awaited with hopefulness the results of a train conference between Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Henry G. Brunner, Democratic chairman, scheduled to get underway when the "Smith special" steams eastward from Indianapolis this afternoon.

Brunner left Columbus early today with the expressed determination to use all his powers of persuasion in an effort to get a definite commitment from Gov. Smith as to whether or not he will return to Ohio for one or more speaking engagements in the Buckeye State before the campaign is brought to a close.

"Due to Gov. Smith's strenuous campaign throughout the south, west and midwest, he has been under a strain and whether he decides to broaden the scope of his activities to include Ohio really hinges on the condition of his health upon his return to New York," declared an official at Democratic headquarters here.

Leaving Indianapolis on the last leg of his return to the east, Smith will pass through Ohio over the Big Four main line late today. His itinerary calls for the special to arrive at Sidney about 6:30 p. m., Bellefontaine 7 p. m., Marion 8 p. m., Galion 8:30 p. m., Shelby 8:35 p. m., and Cleveland at 10 p. m.

Princeton Students, Aroused by Voting Issue, Run Beserk

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 20.—Summary action was expected to be taken by authorities of Princeton university today against some 1,500 students who went on a rampage here last night and tore down Smith and Hoover banners in the town after staging a riot which clocked the Lincoln highway.

Angered because a residence qualification barred them from registering to vote on election day, the students paraded along the highway setting off firecrackers and red flares. They routed the town's firemen out of bed by turning in a false alarm, stopped a Philadelphia bus and rocked it back and forth, and were prevented by university protectors from mobbing the jail. The Hoover and Smith political banners were carried away piecemeal as souvenirs.

Illness Fatal To O. S. U. Professor

Columbus, Oct. 20.—Dr. John Bowmcker, 63, head of the department of Geology at Ohio State University, died here today after an illness of eight months. He was associated with the university here for 33 years.

Funeral services will probably be held Monday at Amanda, near his old home at St. Paul, Fairfield county.

Man Slays Wife and Then Shoots Self

Akron, Oct. 20.—Louis Lazar, 63, today shot and killed his wife Mary, 34, and then committed suicide on the street here.

The two had been separated for several months. As the woman was enroute to work this morning, Lazar met her on the street and shot her twice, both bullets striking near the heart. Lazar then fired a bullet into his head. Both died instantly.

Lazar is said to have been arrested several times on charges of non-support and wife beating. Four daughters, between the ages of 8 and 15, survive.

SMITH HEADING FOR NEW YORK WELL SATISFIED

Chicago's Reception Gives Heart to Choice Of Democrats

By GEORGE H. HOLMES

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The Brown derby waves for the last time today west of the Alleghenies.

Heartened by the magnificent reception given him in Chicago, Gov. Al Smith starts eastward today, via Indiana, to make one of his usual whirlwind finishes to a campaign. Two weeks from tonight, in his own New York, he will make his closing bid for the presidency.

The Democratic nominee leaves the west "entirely satisfied," to use his own words, with the outlook. For ten days he has been on the road continuously, received everywhere by crowds such as political old timers say have never turned out for any candidate for public office.

Enters Indiana
He enters Indiana today for his final bow in the Middle West happy and confident. The Hoosier State has 15 electoral votes and Gov. Smith will stop for an hour, perhaps two. He plans a call there on Thomas Taggart, the veteran Democratic leader of the state, who is ill, and a conference with a number of farm leaders that may be in the nature of a speech. The residents of Indianapolis will get a chance to glimpse the brown derby in one of the usual parades. Other stops will be made at Lafayette, Muncie and possibly Lebanon.

Considerable significance is attached to the meeting that has been arranged between Governor Smith and the farm leaders at Indianapolis, who will be headed by Wm. H. Settle, one of Hoover's bitterest assailants on the farm issue. Governor Smith has been told that the Republican agriculturists in Indiana, who normally run up big G.

FIRE INFLECTS HEAVY LOSSES

Ohio Village Blaze Is
Cause of $50,000
Damage

Zanesville, Oct. 20.—Fire destroyed the business block of Summerfield, Noble county, east of here early today, causing a loss of approximately $50,000. Cause of the fire is not determined. Fire a month ago destroyed the store of Bode brothers. Three business houses, the Knights of Pythias Hall, and a seven room dwelling were destroyed despite the efforts of fire apparatus sent from Caldwell and Woodsfield.

The fire is said to have started about 1:30 a. m. in the rear of the Knowlton & Batten general store which was destroyed.

Others leveled by the fire were Bode brothers rebuild store, the Friday brothers garage, and the seven room dwelling of Mrs. Ellen Burbacher.

PILOT FREED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 20.—The airplane accident here Thursday night, which resulted in the death of one person and the injury to seven others, was not due to criminal negligence, but was entirely accidental, in the opinion of the officials who have been conducting an investigation.

Inspector Samuel Lippman, acting chief of police, said his investigation convinced him there was no culpable negligence in the handling of the plane by the pilot, George King, of Garden City, N. J.

Pliny Jewell, Boston banker, is still in a serious condition in the hospital as is Henry Duer, of Baltimore, Md.

The postoffice was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars and an unknown amount of postal supplies destroyed.

Although a search was started, the burglars apparently made good their escape.

AUTO TOPPLES INTO CREEK; 3 FATALLY HURT

Accident Near Toledo Is Fatal To Two Girls
And Boy

Toledo, Oct. 20.—Lois Hingleman, 15, Thelma Henry, 14, and Earl Bryant, 15, were fatally injured here today, the result of the auto in which they were riding plunging into a shallow creek near here last night.

Grady Hawkins, 16, driver of the car, a light roadster, told police he was headed for Toledo when he momentarily lost control of the car which swerved to the roadside, crashed into an abutment and toppled into the creek. Hawkins was slightly injured. He admitted that the lights on the car were poor, police say.

Toledo, Oct. 20.—Dr. Marshall Newhouse, 76, his wife, Mrs. Newhouse, 74, both of Marion, and their daughter, Mrs. F. E. Wright, of Detroit, were under treatment at Flower hospital here today for serious injuries sustained in an automobile collision on the Dixie Highway, near here, yesterday.

STATE GRIDDERS SET FOR GAME

Feud of 25 Years Will Be Revived With Classic

Columbus, Oct. 20.—With ideal football weather hovering about Ohio stadium and with both teams entering the field in good physical condition, a feud of 25 years standing was slated to be revived here this afternoon, between football squads of Ohio State University and University of Michigan.

A light signal drill wound up the "week before Michigan" for Ohio State yesterday afternoon. The workout yesterday completed one of the lightest training periods ever undergone by an Ohio State team before an important football contest in the history of the institution. Only one scrimmage was held during the week.

Although injuries to the Buckeye squad are not reported to be serious, several of the crippled members of the varsity squad who were in the Northwestern lineup last Saturday, are not likely to start the fray today.

With an injured knee still bothering him considerably, "Hardy" Kruskamp fullback will be minus when the Buckeyes take the field against the invading Wolverines this afternoon. Joe Uhljely, guard who sustained body bruises and sprains at the hands of the Northwestern Wildcat, is neither a likely starter. Howard Kriess, halfback, another member of the crippled list will probably see action in the game and reports indicated early today that he was a likely starter.

Following a week of secret sessions on the part of Bucks and the Wolverines, starting lineups were still in doubt this morning, although probable starters were mentioned.

Bomb Blast Rocks Chicago Hotel; One Seriously Injured

Chicago, Oct. 20.—A terrific bomb blast rocked a fashionable Chicago apartment hotel early today. Hundreds of occupants of the building were thrown into panic when the explosion shattered windows and hurled bricks in a radius of half a mile.

Miss Bertha Finkler, who occupied an apartment on the second floor of the hotel was seriously injured when she was struck by a door torn from its hinges by force of the explosion.

Police investigating the explosion said alcohol racketeers were responsible for the blast. The building is owned by Earl O. Leatherman, former prohibition agent in charge of liquor conspiracy cases in the Chicago district.

CICCO EVIDENCE READY MONDAY

Six Men and Six Women
Serve On Jury In Shooting Case

Elyria, O., Oct. 20.—With a jury of six men and six women selected, the trial of Louis Cicco, former Lorain patrolman and dry officer, stood adjourned today until Monday.

Cicco is charged with shooting with intent to wound. He was one of three officers stationed at a highway bridge in Lorain the night of Sept. 26 when Miss Betty Heywood, 22, of Elyria, received a pistol bullet at the base of her skull.

The officers declare that the automobile in which Miss Heywood was a passenger failed to obey their command to halt. Cicco, it is alleged, fired several shots at the car. With a scar about her head to conceal the bandaged wound, Miss Heywood was present in the courtroom as the trial opened yesterday. Immediately after it had been sworn, the jury was taken to the scene of the shooting in Lorain.

Prosecutor Dow A. Baird has summoned about a dozen witnesses for the state, among them Miss Heywood's father, Richard Heywood, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards, who were also in the automobile when she was shot. Defense witnesses will include Frank Klady, former deputy sheriff, and Walter Knutter, former Lorain patrolman, who were stationed with Cicco, watching for run running automobiles, on the night of the shooting. Both are at Liberty, under $1,500 bond each, though no action has yet been taken against them by the county grand jury.

PENNSYLVANIA GETS JAWORSKI

Slayer To Be Returned
With Heavily Armed Guardsmen

Cleveland, Oct. 20.—In the custody of four heavily armed detectives, Paul Jaworski, gangster and killer, is to be taken to Pittsburgh this afternoon—a trip which is to bring him to death in the electric chair.

Chief of County Detectives George W. Murren, of Pittsburgh, announced today he would take Jaworski on the 2:30 train.

Every precaution is to be taken against a possible attempt by members of the "Flathead Gang" to kidnap their former leader. Some consideration was given a proposal to return the convicted desperado by airplane but the plan was given up after a conference between the Pittsburgh detectives this morning.

Fourteen months ago Jaworski shot his way out of the county jail at Pittsburgh where he was under the death sentence for a payroll shooting. The "Flathead Gang" which he once led, perpetrated a series of famous robberies in western Pennsylvania. On Sept. 13, Jaworski was found here, shot down and captured after a gun battle in which he killed one policeman and wounded two other men. Partially paralyzed by his wounds, he will be placed on a stretcher, on the train, this afternoon, according to present plans.

Chief of Police Graul, Safety Director Barry, Detective Chief Cady and Prosecutor Stanton, all of Cleveland, assisted Murren in legal steps necessary to the removal this morning. Common Pleas Judge Walter McMahon granted the formal release after Murren had presented extradition papers.

Pittsburgh detectives who will guard Jaworski, besides Murren, are John Geisler, Mike McDermott, Ben McWilliams and Joseph Bodner.

CHURCHES

The Church of Our Saviour, 227 McKinley ave. Rev. Christian A. Schreier, pastor.
Services Sunday Oct. 31, the Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.
Celebration of the Holy Communion 7:30.
Church school 9:30.
Morning prayer and sermon 11:00.
A dinner for the men of the parish will be given Tuesday at 6 o'clock in the basement of the church to welcome a number of new men who have lately come into the parish.

The Christian should hold himself in constant readiness to do God's will. He is a soldier engaged in a great campaign, and he needs to be prepared for the warfare in which his life is to be spent. He is not called upon to provide armament, to build barracks, to prepare food and clothing, to pay for fortifications and to arrange for shelter. In the affairs of this life, this is the work of the government. The state provides for its soldiers. And the soldiers of the Cross find that the great captain of his salvation has made abundant provision for his every need; he has but to use the armor of the soul, the weapons of the spiritual warfare, and to fight the good fight of faith, cheerfully obeying the commands of Christ. The Christian is bought with a price, he has been redeemed, and he is called upon to glorify God in his body, and in his spirit, which are God's. So St. Paul calls upon the Roman converts to yield themselves unto God, and their members as weapons of righteousness unto God, but it is a willing enlistment under the banner of the King. There is no forced service. And it is the whole life, "body and soul." Amara gave part of his goods, but not himself. The Macedonians first gave their own selves, and then their substance. And he who is ready through grace, both in body and soul, yields his life, his all, his means, his time, his talents, his influence to God. The call to service comes from God Himself. "Ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's; and all that we do for God and man, in the service of Christ, should be done, not of constraint, but willingly, a spirit for which we ask in the prayer that we may 'cheerfully accomplish those things that Thy wouldst have done.' It is the willing mind, the ready heart, that leads us to run in the way of God's commandments. 'Whatever ye do,' said the apostle 'do it heartily, as to the Lord.'

There is no work in which God calls us for which He does not provide the necessary grace, strength sufficient for the day, and His protecting care while we are engaged in it. When He calls to service, He enables for duty.

OHIO HOME IS BOMBING SCENE

Resident Fires Shots At Intruders Without Effect

Gallipolis, O., Oct. 20.—Although a determined investigation has been launched by authorities into the explosion of two dynamite bombs which partially wrecked the home of John T. Porter at Bladen, near here, late Wednesday night, no clues to the mysterious would-be assassins have yet been found.

The bombs were thrown from a darkened automobile in front of Porter's home. Both bombs failed to reach their objective, the house, but exploded in the yard shattering window panes and blasting away portions of the foundation.

Porter grabbed a gun and fired several shots at his assailants, but they sped safely away in the darkness.

Porter asserts his belief the dynamiters were bootleggers seeking vengeance for a recent cleanup by federal prohibition agents in that territory, said to have resulted from information furnished authorities by Porter.

PROHIBITION?

The Following Letter Was Mailed By Me to a Number of Ministers in the Eighteenth District:

Waynesburg, Ohio.
October 8, 1928.

Dear Sir:—

I thank you for your note and the leaflets enclosed. I have read with very great interest your leaflets and the citation of Matthew 18: 1-14. I quote the verses 1, 2, 6 and 14:

1. At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?
2. And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them.
6. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
14. Even so it is not the will of your Father, which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish."

The application that you make of these verses is that one must not do anything which would lead these "little ones" into the way of temptation, whereby any "one boy or girl should be lost eternally." I quite agree, wholeheartedly agree. If your noble experiment, after eight years test, is working even fifty per cent, I am for you and your experiment. There is one simple test whereby you can find out for yourself and prove either that I am a liar and a demagogue or you are mistaken. Go into your nearest grocery store, buy a can of "pure malt syrup" and ask the grocer how many cans he sells per week. Go in succession to each of the other grocery stores in your town, ask the same question, and then total the figures. Multiply the total cans sold by five and you get a result in gallons that will open your eyes. Now take your malt can home—mix with water according to information which almost any of your neighbors can supply. Place in your refrigerator and use ad libitum. You now have near to five gallons of about five per cent beer. Beer! you exclaim — beer 5 %. Why goodness, gracious! I have violated the Volstead Act, which if enforced strictly as promised, by both Hoover and Smith, will send me to the penitentiary! Right you are, brother, right you are! And if your noble experimental law ever is strictly enforced, about eighty per cent of the office and factory workers in your town will be either in jail (Crabbe Act) or in the penitentiary (Volstead Act). Formerly beer was placed on sale in the corner saloon. Now it is in the cellars of about two-thirds of the dwelling houses. Answer me, sir—who placed this five percent intoxicating beer on the table, in the kitchen, in the refrigerators of approximately two-thirds of all the houses—for "these little ones" to see and handle and help mix and prepare and PERHAPS drink—to excess—even to drunkenness? Who now is answerable to God? These "home brew" violations are not all. The rich buy and drink "bootleg whiskey" by the millions of dollars worth every year. Scarcely a rich man's house but has its liberal supply. The poor and middle well-to-do make beer—wine—and drink it by the millions of gallons. Fact undisputed and indisputable. To quote your own words "it is an awful responsibility you assume," when you place a five gallon brew vat in practically two-thirds of all the houses, and whiskey in practically every house, whereby men, women and children can drink, get drunk and go to hell unrestrained, unashamed and unafraid, save they be negroes or foreigners. These are the ones who pay the legal penalty—all others go free.

Who now, should have the "millstone about his neck?" He who is the apologist, the advocate, the defender of these laws under the eight years operation of which these conditions have come about—or I who favor abolishing this noble experiment, now become ignoble—and the substitution of another law founded on common sense and the universal experience of mankind?

JJW-H

Yours very truly,
JOHN J. WHITACRE,
Democratic Candidate for Congress

GRAPES AND WINE

Cleveland News, October 9.

Last year 1743 cars of grapes were sold at these auctions; 1522 cars California grapes. This year there will be upwards of 1600 cars of California grapes sold here, according to the U. S. Department of agriculture.

If the minimum proportion of 75 per cent juice grapes holds, that will be 1200 cars, at 2600 gallons of wine a car.

The whole nation this year will make 125,000,000 gallons of California wine. In 1913, the total domestic and imported wine sold in the United States was only 55,300,000 gallons.

But 3,120,000 gallons is far from all the wine which will be made in the Cleveland district before the grapes are gone. Many of the California table grapes are used for wine; and there is the "domestic" crop-grapes brought in from Arkansas, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania and raised in Ohio.

In 1925, Ohio produced 13,750 tons of grapes. This year the government estimate is 28,700 tons.

Cuyahoga county alone is producing 300 tons of grapes this year.

HOOVER

This opportunity to explain how the Coolidge administration retired the public debt, reduced federal taxes and kept expenditures down, while the business of government was expanding side by side with all the rest of America.

Red Tape
Hoover may touch too upon the question of governmental red tape. Earlier in the campaign, he declared there were too many government bureaus overlapping each other to the confusion of business men who tried to transact business with Uncle Sam. He told of initiating reforms in his own department of commerce and pledged himself to extend this reorganization to the rest of the government, if elected.

The Hoover headquarters meanwhile silenced another campaign "whisper" that he had danced with a negro woman in Mound Bayou, Miss., while there on flood relief work. Governor Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi was reported to have made the charge in a public address and George Akerson, Hoover's secretary, immediately wired the executive a heated denial. Akerson declared the story false, saying Hoover had spent but three minutes in the town and hadn't even left the rear platform of his train.

ENGLISH CHURCH BATTLE MAY BE UP AGAIN SOON

London, Oct. 20.—The truce in the internal warfare in the Church of England is ending and hostilities are likely to be resumed within the next few weeks.

The question is: "What will the bishops do next?" Twice in the present year the new and revised Prayer Book, propounded with the unparalleled influence of the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bench of Bishops, has been rejected by the house of commons, the final arbiter.

Now, with the schism between the two sections in the church practically complete, the point arises: Is the Church of England to seek alliance with the Free Churches in England, and the Protestant churches on the continent or is she to see union with the Church of Rome?

Settlement in 1930
These points are being only debated now, but in 1930 they must come up for settlement at the Lambeth conference, which will probably decide the whole of the future fate of the English church.

Meanwhile a whole set of perplexing questions are troubling both clergy and laity in Britain. They are:

In the absence of a new Prayer Book what are to be the governing principles for ritual and worship in the Anglican churches?
Can any part of the Revised Prayer-Book be used for public worship?

What is to be the procedure with respect to Perpetual Reservation?

How is discipline to be preserved in the Anglican church?
The bishops meet at Lambeth palace during the week ending Sept. 29.

Their deliberations will be under the presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Cosmo Lang. Following this private conference, the synods of clergy which have been called by their various bishops will take place in their respective dioceses next month. The synods will probably govern the future action of the bishops.

Fear Bishop's Decision
In Anglo-Catholic circles, however, where the Revised Prayer Book is upheld, fear exists that the bishops' decision may influence the synods. On the other hand, the Evangelicals, who opposed the new Prayer Book, are stated to be prepared to support the bishops in action they take, provided that any attempt to sanction Perpetual Reservations are ended once and for all.

The bulk of churchmen are hoping that, after the few months of quiet reflection since the second rejection of the Revised Prayer Book, both sections of the church may be prepared to meet in a spirit of compromise—otherwise complete disunion may result.

SMITH

O. P. majorities, are on the war-path this year. He is going to add fuel to the fire by telling them that they can take a personal message from him into their districts that if elected in November he is going into action immediately on the relief problem.

Through In West
Governor Smith closed his speaking campaign in the west in Chicago last night with the most slashing attack he has yet made in the Republican record. He hit everything from farm relief to water power, and from the oil scandals to prohibition.

Eight thousand madly cheering Chicagoans all that could possible shove, jam or push their way into the old armory on Michigan ave., applauded his every thrust. Thousands of others battled with the police to get in.

The governor was in his best speaking form. Sarcastically he called into Senator Wm. E. Borah, whom the Republicans put on the Smith trail for fellow up speeches on the present trip.

Borah, he said, had lost the progressivism he once had and has become merely a politician more interested in Republican success than in the principles he once espoused.

"Senator Borah did not always think so much about Mr. Hoover," said Gov. Smith. "He had a little different idea of him when he was food administrator than he has today when he is the candidate of his party. Let's go into the record on it."

Then he read from Borah's senate speeches accusing Mr. Hoover of gross mismanagement of the food administration, of being "unfit" to direct the handling of $100,000,000 for food relief in Europe immediately after the war, and of "violating the most fundamental principles of the constitution."

"This is my way of thinking," said Gov. Smith, "is a polite way of calling a man a lawbreaker. And with this performance of only nine years ago Senator Borah is now traveling through the country today proclaiming that Hoover is the greatest man in the United States and ought to be its president for the next four years."

Gov. Smith is telling the farming communities that during the war and reconstruction period, Candidate Hoover was responsible for keeping up the prices of farm products.

CHICAGO OPERA MAKES HIT WITH FAUST VERSION

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Tradition has suffered another cropper.

The American Opera Company opened its 1938 season in Chicago with that famous old opera "Faust" in English and Society, the music world and even the tired business man welcomed the modern version with extended arms, as well as the clapping of hands.

And the "Faust" which has thrilled Chicagoans perhaps as it never did before, is decidedly different in other respects than the opera is sung in English. The company has succeeded in building the ancient opera into what American theater patrons call "a good show."

The entire story as presented by the American Opera company is a greatly re-written translation of the rather inadequate, inferior libretto to which Gounod wrote his famed music. The audience, for the first time, wholly understanding the theme of the opera, responded, it seemed, almost as a unit as the "good show" was unfolded. The famous "Jewel Song" and other melody hits of the opera seemed to impart a new meaning and perhaps for the first time an American audience grasped the full tragedy and poignant beauty of "Faust."

Another innovation of the American company was the use of two Fausti.

Chicago opera lovers warmly praised the new "Faust." Especially pleasing to them was the modern stage setting, introducing 1928 light and scenic effects.

Unearth Valuable Relics In Chicago

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Relics of historic value are being found nearly every day by the workers digging for the foundations of the Merchandise Mart, which is to be the world's largest business building. The latest to be discovered by the caisson diggers today was a United States gold coin of the year 1803, just 125 years old. On one side is a face of a woman with 13 stars around her head. On the other side is the American eagle, also surrounded by 13 stars. No denomination is discernible on the coin. The wording is "United States of America, E. Pluribus Unum—1803." Another old coin—a penny of 1804—was found a few weeks ago.

COURT NEWS

Asks Damages
The Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company was named as defendant in an action filed in the common pleas court on Thursday in which Rose Metz, a minor, asks $20,000 damages on account of personal injuries. The plaintiff filed her action through her next friend, Dominic Metz.

On the 28th of last January, Miss Metz boarded one of the cars of the company in the diamond in East Liverpool, to go to Wellsville, and she claims that when she attempted to walk down the aisle of the car that she slipped on the accumulation of snow and slush which had accumulated upon the floor of the car, and fell. She was so severely injured that she was confined to bed for five weeks and she now thinks that her nervous system has been shattered to such an extent that she will be an invalid for life. Her injuries have also caused one of her legs to be shorter than the other.

Court Makes Order
An action to sell through order of the court entailed real estate in Liverpool township, was filed in court on Thursday by Samuel Burbridge of that city, against Frank Burrows and others who are heirs of the late Richard Burrows, Sr., whose death occurred in East Liverpool in the fall of 1912.

In "item 2nd" of the will of the deceased, it is stated, he gave to his son Frank the Liverpool township tract of land containing 1,333 acres, and also gave certain rights in the property to others. The property, now in the possession of the defendant, it is stated, is worth $2,000 but will not rent for more than $5 per month so that it is thought best to all interests to sell the same if the court will authorize the parties to the suit to do so.

File Action
The Citizens' Banking company of Salineville, has filed an action in the common pleas court against the village of Salineville, asking judgment for $1,402.50, the amount being claimed due on a promissory note given by the village to the bank on May 25, 1923.

POLITICS AGAIN STIR BRITISH AS VACATIONS END

London, Oct. 20.—With the return of British cabinet members from their holiday holidays, politics are again coming to the fore in English life.

The first cabinet meetings were held with two conspicuous members of the government absent. They were Sir Austen Chamberlain, the foreign minister, who is voyaging for his health, and Lord Birkenhead, the secretary of state for India, who was forced to stay away because of the serious illness of his mother.

However, no time was lost getting down to serious business—and the first item discussed was the famous Anglo-French naval agreement, hailed by competent political observers here as the most bungled yet perpetrated by Whitehall and the Quai d'Orsay. No one knows just yet what action will be taken, but it is fully appreciated in parliamentary circles that the United States feels considerably upset over the terms of the agreement, and it is generally assumed that some concession will now have to be made by Great Britain to appease the nation across the sea.

It is feared, however, that the concession will fall upon deaf ears, for England now has to face the unpleasant fact that America is quite finished with foreign entanglements of any sort.

The recent disastrous theater fire in Madrid has started a campaign by municipal authorities throughout England to prevent any such catastrophe occurring in this country. Most of the theaters and motion picture houses here are singularly well prepared in case of fire, especially in view of the fact that many of them are very old.

However, England has the same system of licensing as the United States and unless a certain number of exits are supplied, with the doors opening outward, and unless the stage is equipped with a practicable asbestos curtain, licenses to operate are withheld.

Major H. O. D. Segrave, the British racing motorist whose world's speed record was broken last spring by Kaye Don, is planning a new attempt to be staged in Florida early next year.

He is having constructed a special car, which he hopes will be capable of 240 miles an hour. It will be called "The Golden Arrow," and to bear out its name, will be painted a bright gold all over.

At the same time, Major Segrave hopes to launch an attack upon the speedboat record held by Gar Wood. A high-powered speedboat is now under construction and will be launched on Dec. 12.

Major Segrave leaves for America in January, taking both his distance-devastating machines with him.

CHEMISTS SEEK WAY TO COMBAT POISONOUS GAS

New York, Oct. 20.—The Chemical Warfare Service sees success ahead in its effort to provide protection against carbon dioxide. Major General Amos A. Fries, U. S. A., chief of the service, discussed in the Chemical Warfare Service, "Industrial and Engineering Chemistry," a journal of the American Chemical society.

"Carbon dioxide, the twin brother to carbon monoxide, but not so dangerous, is a product of ordinary combustion and of the respiration of men and animals," says General Fries summarizing progress in the development of by-products of chemical warfare to shield workers from industrial poisons.

"The question of eliminating the injurious effects of carbon dioxide in places where adequate ventilation cannot be secured is an important industrial problem."

Military Importance
"It is of direct military importance at the present time owing to the necessity of providing means of combating poisonous effects of carbon monoxide in submarines when the crews are entrapped therein, through accident or other emergency, as in the recent collision of the S-4."

"The Chemical Warfare Service is now endeavoring to find some means of solving this problem. It appears, that, although difficult, a solution will ultimately be found, and when found will prove of very great value commercially."

"As most of the industrial poisons common in hazardous industries have been proposed as effective chemical warfare agents, the Chemical Warfare Service has studied very extensively the problem of protection against these poisons. Such protective measures are of course, directly applicable to industry and have proved a boon to those engaged in many hazardous occupations."

Dangerous Poison
"Carbon monoxide is one of the most dangerous industrial poisons because of its lack of odor, color, and taste and its widespread prevalence. Although its physical properties are not such as to make it a practical chemical warfare agent, yet it was often encountered during the war and protection against it was a serious problem."

"The explosion of high explosives in enclosed places, such as dugouts, interior of a ship, etc., causes the generation of deadly concentrations of carbon monoxide. Machine-gun fire in tanks and pill boxes and the use of explosives in sapping operations are also responsible for carbon monoxide casualties in war."

"Industrially, carbon monoxide is encountered very frequently. It is a constituent of the usual illuminating gas supplied to cities for heat and light, and is the cause of many deaths each year. It is also present in the exhaust gases of gasoline engines, in boiler rooms with defective ventilation, in fires, and in general wherever combustion is incomplete."

National Park In S. Utah Enjoyed; Good Tourist Year

St. Georges, Utah, Oct. 20.—Zion National park, located in the central southern part of Utah, enjoyed a good tourist season during the summer of 1928 according to E. T. Scoyen, superintendent of the park.

A total of 30,016 visitors passed through the gates to the wonderful Utah. He led the list of states from which the visitors came California was second in representation, Illinois and New York running a close race for third place. Every state in the union and the District of Columbia was represented on the register. Many foreign countries such as Australia, Bolivia, Canada, England, France, Germany, Java, South Africa and Sweden were included in the list.

DOUMERGUE HAS PATIENCE WHEN SCULPTOR WORKS

Paris, Oct. 20.—Gaston Doumergue, president of the French republic, is the model of models, according to sculptor Denys Puech, who is now making an effigy of the good-natured executive.

After having the distinction of being the only French president who had never posed for a bust or bas-relief, "Gastounnet" consented to pose for the official sculptor.

"He is a perfect model when it comes to patience," the artist affirms. "Why, he has much more patience than the Pope himself, who is extremely photogenic."

"He obeys my orders in a most charming manner and when the séance is over, never fails to say, 'What? I'm already?' He will certainly have the patience to sit as long and as often as I want. So many of my models have had their own ideas about how they should pose and become irritable after a short time compelling me to finish the work from photographs."

Monsieur Briand, minister of affairs, is also a good model, says Monsieur Puech, but likes to make suggestions and must always have his cigarette.

Ex-President Millerand made his sittings with the sculptor very serious affairs and engineered everything himself.

The bust of the present chief executive will show Doumergue in his suit of "grande ceremonie" wearing the cordon of the legion of honor.

In Paris Saturday night comes around only once every four months statistics would have us believe. At least, during the fiscal year just ended, only nine million abortions were taken in the public bath establishments of this city. As Paris counts some three million inhabitants, the average is three baths per year per inhabitant.

The answer is that part of the people probably take weekly baths at public places, while the other part stays away entirely. As comparatively few can afford the luxury of a private tub, the swimming pools take care of that part missing at the public bath tubs.

New York—Turn your radio dials to 3.65 meters and tune in on yourself. That's the tuning point of the body. It has been discovered by C. R. England, Bell Telephone research scientist.

COMPENSATION PROVIDES FOR AMPLE SUPPORT

Husband Drowns, Widow Gets Percentage Of Wages for Life

Martins Ferry, O., Oct. 20.—The first award ever to be made in the Wheeling district under the new federal longshoremen and harbor workers compensation act has just been recorded as a result of the accidental death by drowning of Charles W. Grier of Brookside who fell from a barge near the Martins Ferry blast furnace landing May 20. The award is for the full amount allowed under the new U. S. marine workers act, this being 35 per cent of the monthly wage of the decedent.

Application was made on behalf of Mrs. Anna Grier, widow of the victim, and H. G. McManigal, Louisville, Ky. deputy United States compensation commissioner for the 11th district under the new law, held a hearing in the federal building in Wheeling September 29. Attorneys Heinlein, James, Lewis & Jones represented the family and Kinder & Frazier, the Wheeling Corrugating company by whom Grier was employed when the accident occurred. The company contended that death was due to heart failure rather than drowning. The verdict of Coroner J. W. Neal as introduced, showing drowning was responsible for the tragedy was upheld by Commissioner McManigal today's decision shows.

Retroactive. The award is retroactive on May 20. It will continue during the life of Mrs. Grier. Her husband was employed at the Martins Ferry Corrugating plant as carpenter foreman and was engaged in preparing a barge for shipment early one morning when he stepped off the edge of the vessel. The body was recovered.

Indiana Machinist Owns 803-Year-Old Birmingham Watch

Gary, Ind., Oct. 20.—What is said to be one of the oldest watches in the world is owned by Edward Fernland, a local machinist, who claims his timepiece is 803 years old.

The ancient "ticker" was manufactured in Birmingham, England and weighs more than half a pound. Inscribed upon the brass mechanism is the word "Buckingham" and under it the numerals "1125." The machinist insists that the figures represent the year in which the watch was made.

However, the Encyclopedia Britannica places the date of the invention of the pocket watch as some time during the latter part of the fifteenth century in Nuremberg, Germany.

Fernland said that his timepiece had been appraised at $6,000. The stem projects from the back of the case. Ornate hand carving is prominent, and even the cogs, wheels, balance staff and supporting posts are engraved with scrolls and decorative work.

In support of his contention that the watch actually was manufactured in 1125, Fernland said there is a tradition that in 1090, a Danish king bought the first watch that was made and presented it to a Russian sovereign, who ordered it destroyed immediately when he heard it ticking.

Altimeter Failure May Have Caused Mail Plane Crash
Franklin, Pa., Oct. 20.—Failure to set his altimeter at the last control point may have been responsible for the plane crash in which William C. Hopson, New York-Cleveland air mail pilot, lost his life, superintendent W. L. Smith of Cleveland-Bellefonte division, National Air transport, revealed today before returning to Cleveland.

It was evident that Hopson was attempting to gain altitude when his plane struck the tops of the trees, Smith said. Hopson's body was found yesterday in the wreckage of his burned plane in Bear Hollow, near Polk, southwest of here, after having been missing since early Thursday. With the altimeter not functioning, it is practically impossible for the aviator to tell his altitude, especially on a foggy and stormy night.

Columbiana County Fans Watching Three High School Games

Salem-Wellsville Tilt Heads List; Followers Travel With Stonemen

Three important games are scheduled for today's gridiron program in Columbiana county. Only two of these are between county elevens, but the eyes of football fandom will be following the results of each with interest due to the intensity of this year's county competition.

The Salem-Wellsville contest at Wellsville occupies the lion's share of the spotlight, naturally, as it is regarded as the first major county game of the year. It is also considered as the real test for both aggregations, and to a large extent will determine the destinies of Floyd Stone's charges in the county circuit. Salem is entering the game the big favorite to topple the Orange and Black, and according to dope—which by the way seldom means anything—should emerge with its third consecutive county scalp.

Just as the Salem-Wellsville game is creating a great stir, so fans are watching the impending struggle between East Liverpool and Toledo, in hopes to get some definite data on the Ceramic City outfit. Liverpool is the puzzle of county squads, having shown only a small amount of power, when this year it was expected to come through like a burning domicile.

Head East Liverpool

Last Saturday East Palestine held Liverpool to a 24-12 score, but fans were unable to determine whether it was the strength of Palestine or the weakness of the Pottery that kept the score down. Liverpool was expected to win by several touchdowns, but just managed to squeeze in the marginal points in the last period. Salem plays Liverpool November 3.

Palestine battles Lisbon at the county seat, and insists on being regarded as a likely prospect for the county championship. Lisbon occasionally has flashed a fine aerial attack and has an excellent ball carrier in By, fullback, so the game is foreseen as anything but a scoring excursion for the Brown and Whites.

Last year Lisbon swamped Palestine, and may pull the unexpected once more. If this is done, Palestine will be eliminated as far as the county title is concerned, as it will be the second defeat sustained by Ward's progress.

Salem clashes with Palestine November 24, and today's game will give Stone somewhat of an idea of the power of Ward's team.

Columbiana High will play its first home game of the season with Canfield. Coach Miller is contemplating a few changes in his lineup that he expects will turn back the Mahoning county outfit, and hopes to secure revenge for the 6-0 smacking sustained at Canfield last year.

Salem Prestige On Trial

Despite the class displayed by the Salem High eleven in its games played this season, other county teams refuse to regard the Red and Black as outstanding. The scheduled date of Stone's warriors is rated by fans of other cities as a series of "push-overs" and will not concede Salem the favoritism for the county championship.

Today's game at Wellsville, therefore is the "big" scrap of the season so far, as the prestige of the Red and Black is on trial. Competition in the county never runs true to date; this has been proven time and again in past years, and for this reason it is just as well that Coach Stone continues his custom of leaving the doping to the fans, and working his squad hard regardless of the forecast.

Butler Grange Gives Candidates Degrees

Two candidates were initiated in the third and fourth degrees at a meeting of Butler grange Thursday evening at the hall, near Wiltona.

A program of readings, music and discussions was given at the lecture hour. At the next meeting in two weeks officers will be chosen for the ensuing year.

Chicago Racketeers Make Heavy Hauls In Business Crimes

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Hundreds of thousands of dollars are being diverted annually from legitimate commercial channels in Chicago by "business racketeers," according to Flint Grinnell, better business bureau manager here.

"Business crimes" and the operation of "rackets," Grinnell said, threatens Chicago's position as the greatest central market in the United States. The "business crimes" classified by the bureau are: Smuggled goods — "Racketeers" dressed as seamen who canvass offices and homes offering "smuggled" cigars, furs and other articles for sale at double the retail price.

Stuffed flats — Furniture dealers who move their goods into vacant apartments and sell them for second hand bargains.

Fake trade schools — Luring hundreds of young men to Chicago to become rich over night by taking trade school courses. The jobs disappear after the students have paid their tuition, it is charged.

Associations — The bureau claims a record of twenty associations of business men organized solely for the benefit of promoters and supported only under compulsion.

Free lots and kindred real estate schemes — Thousands of investors are being deprived of their savings each year by the "lucky number" method of selling lots at fictitious values, Grinnell said.

Suit clubs — A lottery scheme for the distribution of clothing, jewelry, hosiery and furniture. The bureau estimates that 3,000 persons contribute to the clubs weekly.

Turner Rules Date For Absent Voters

Columbus, Oct. 20.—A voter cannot legally receive an absent voter's ballot after midnight of the last Saturday preceding an election held on Tuesday. This ruling was given by Attorney General Edward C. Turner to Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Pollock, Defiance.

The ruling was in response to a query from Pollock who said that the Defiance county election board "has made it a practice of permitting absent voters to cast their ballots as late as Monday evening before the election held on the following day."

Further interpreting Ohio election laws dealing with absent voters' ballots, Turner ruled that an application for an absent voter's ballot "cannot be made by telegraph for the reason that the law contemplates the application bearing the signature of the applicant."

Election Funds Gone, Board Wants Credit

New Lexington, Oct. 20.—Because election funds have been exhausted by the election board, Perry county commissioners today were preparing to join the great army doing business on the "dollar down, and a dollar a week plan."

Under an opinion handed down by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, rendered to Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Dugan on behalf of the commissioners, the latter are empowered to hold the coming elections on "tick," since election funds have already been exhausted by the election board and no other funds are available for transfer.

The board of elections is authorized to make contracts and the duty of the commissioners is to pay what they can, the opinion states, and many of those who expect to render services are contemplating a gloomy wait until next year before they receive compensation.

Brown and Yale Are Scheduled to Clash

New Haven, Oct. 20.—Forty thousand persons are expected to witness the clash between the Yale Bulldogs and the Brown Bear in the Yale Bowl today. Yale is a 2 to 1 favorite but the Eli coaches, remembering Yale's 7 to 0 defeat by the Brown "Iron Men" two years ago, expect a hard battle.

According to Coach Mal Stevens of Yale, Russ Oldt, end and Kell, guard, and Loeser, sub center, will be unable to play and halfback Eddie Decker probably will get into the game. Wentworth Brown center, is reported hors de combat and a substitute, Marsan, will be at quarterback.

Today's encounter is the 34th battle between the two colleges. Brown has won three games and two have resulted in ties.

Marietta Wins Tilt From Otterbein Crew

Marietta, Oct. 20.—Marietta scored early and late to win its first conference game here yesterday from Otterbein, 38-0.

The outstanding feature of the game was a 95-yard run for a touchdown, by Weber, pioneer quarterback.

PETERSON WINS BOUT FROM POOR PAULINO

But He Did Not Know It at the Time and Had to Read the Morning Papers to Make Sure That His Informants Were Truthful

BY SID MERER

New York, Oct. 20.—In the years to come, when facts only stick out of boxing records and circumstances are forgotten, Big Boy Peterson may be able to point with pride to a victory scored over Paulino Uzcudun, the gold-tusked woodchopper of the Pyrenees, on the night of October 19, 1928, in Brooklyn.

Big Boy did not know he was the winner until several minutes after the decision was rendered by Referee Louis Magnolia, who delivered the verdict in his usual dramatic manner by knocking down the loser.

At the moment Peterson, his legs crumpled under him, was resting his chin on the lower rope and gazing off into space with the expression of one who hears the cuckoo calling but can't locate him.

Big Boy Peterson he bane very sick. He remained there chinning himself on the velvet-encased hemp as Paulino retired in disgrace to his corner. Big Boy's seconds dragged him to his corner, propped him up on a stool and turned the hose on him. Still he did not comprehend that he had scored a great victory. He didn't believe it until he read the papers this morning.

Paulino was declared null and void in the second round when he struck Peterson after the Swede had slowly crumpled to the floor in his own corner. Big Boy sank by degrees and one knee had barely touched the floor when a right that the Basque couldn't check thudded his jaw.

The Minneapolis heavyweight was through before Paulino put on the crusher. He had taken a count of nine earlier in the round after running his kniser into a left hook.

Bowling Green Is Winner Over Toledo

Bowling Green, Oct. 20.—Bowling Green college today assumed the role of Bellwether for the teams struggling for leadership in the Northwest Ohio conference as the result of their clean cut and decisive victory over Toledo university here yesterday. About 1200 fans saw Toledo bow before Bowling Green on the short end of a 14 to 0 score.

Taking advantage of the wind, the Falcons scored early in the initial quarter.

Northern Hands B-W Decisive Trimming

Ada, O., Oct. 20.—Baldwin-Wallace kept its record intact on the football chart here yesterday by dropping its game with Ohio Northern 32-0.

In four games played to date B-W opponents have scored 141 points, while the Berea outfit has yet to make its first counter.

Eastern Grid Stars To Make Bid For Honors

New York, Oct. 20.—Such east-greenback stars as Garvey, Charlesworth and Hoben of Yale; Cagle, Sprague and Murrell of the Army; Marsters of Dartmouth; French of Harvard; Paul Scull of Penn and Baysinger of Syracuse will be making their bids for all American honors this afternoon when their teams face elevens of the first calibre.

Many of these stars already have turned in scintillating performances against minor opponents. Today with Yale facing Brown, Army tackling Harvard Dartmouth clashing with Columbia, Penn battling against Penn State and Syracuse playing Nebraska in the west, a real line on their claims to all-American awards should be furnished. They will have to be good to shine against opposition of this calibre.

Amory is a 10 to 7 favorite over Harvard and the same odds indicate a Dartmouth victory over Columbia.

Two Yale dollars against one Brown greenback say that the Bulldog will take a sizeable chunk out of the Bear's hide.

The experts are picking Penn to take Penn State and LaFayette to beat Bucknell. But these seem to be likely spots for the regular weekly upsets to make their appearance.

The Washington and Jefferson-Carnegie scrap appears to be a toss-up. Colgate should defeat Michigan State at Lansing, Mich.

Other eastern games are Navy vs. Duke, Princeton vs. Lehigh, New York University vs. Rutgers, Fordham vs. Holy Cross, Georgetown vs. West Virginia Wesleyan and Pittsburgh vs. Allegheny.

More than 40 agricultural settlements are being successfully established in Palestine under the auspices of the Palestine Foundation Fund.

Colleen Moore in "Lilac Time"

"Lilac Time" one of the outstanding pictures of the year, a dramatic story of the World War will be at the Grand theater all next week. Colleen Moore and Gary Cooper are the stars.

It is a vivid story told in the middle of the great war, with Miss Moore's pathetic little figure in the midst of its greatest alarms. Romance, combined with the dramatic suspense, and artistry of the stars, marvelous scenes of aerial fighting, make it one of the finest portrayals of the days of the war in France.

The plot is a simple affair, the romance of a French girl and a reckless British aviator, always taking chances, and in the midst of the impressive love affair, flies away to certain death.

Clara Bow starred in the straight and narrow, vivid street gun battles, and the final scene, when she shoots her husband to keep him from joining his gang, make it a powerful attraction.

Monday and Tuesday at the State is Ruth Taylor and James Hall in a farce, "Just Married." It is a hilarious story of the troubles a newlywed husband gets into when the sweetheart he once tilted gets after him and almost ruins his married life.

Harrison Ford, Ivy Harris, Tom

For the Vegetable Course

Fresh vegetables are such a valuable health aid that we should use them freely as long as they are available. Thinly sliced fresh cabbage is splendid either as a summer or winter salad; with grated onion and French dressing; with minced cucumbers and peppers and boiled dressing; or with boiled eggs put through the ricer and mayonnaise. Or in hot sauce, a change from the usual potato salad with cold meats.

Fresh crisp cabbage leaves may be filled with minced highly seasoned meat and a little boiled rice, rolled and cooked in a casserole dish for an hour and be served with a smooth tomato sauce. This dish with baked potatoes makes an excellent one-dish dinner. Or cabbage finely minced, smothered and delicately fried in butter, seasoned with pepper, salt and a little sugar, is an excellent luncheon dish.

Stringless beans, boiled as usual, then well drained and put into a good cream sauce, then baked in a buttered baking dish in layers, with a few crumbs and grated cheese between, are quite a pleasing change. Parsnips, boiled, cooled, grated, and with crumbs, seasoning, and a beaten egg added, may be moulded into croquettes and fried delicately, or be baked in the oven. Sliced and fried apple, tomatoes green or red, or egg plant are always acceptable. Lettuce, well washed large green leaves, may be steamed in butter, seasoned with pepper and salt and a few leaves of green mint may be served with the cream sauce. Lima beans, stewed, baked or mashed and made into bean cakes, well seasoned and fried in butter, are always favorites.

Summer squash should be pared, boiled until tender, mashed and drained well, then be seasoned with pepper, salt, a little sugar and butter. Or it may be prepared as directed and have a few crumbs, a little grated cheese, a beaten egg and a little cream added and then be baked in ramekins.

American Beet Soup

Wash and boil eight beets until tender, then remove the skins. Chop five of the beets fine and put them into a quart of light veal stock, or chicken broth that has had the fat removed, add a cupful of chopped celery, a sliced onion, a little chopped parsley, three cloves, half a bay leaf and a saltspoonful of curry powder. Cover and cook gently until the broth is a good red and the beets are whitened out, then put through a puree sieve. Season with pepper, salt and a little sugar, add a pint of cream, hot, and thicken slightly with a little roux, if there are any lumps strain again, then add a cupful of the other beets diced and serve.

Baked Cucumbers and Peppers

Pare, quarter and remove the seeds from two or three of the large cucumbers that are ripe. Put seven red peppers into the oven until the skins begin to curl, then peel them, cut out seeds and pith and chop coarsely. Scald the skins from five good-sized tomatoes. Mix the vegetables, season with pepper, salt and a little sugar, and place in layers in a buttered baking dish with crumbs between dotted with lumps of butter. Bake until a delicate brown, about a half hour.

Fried Cucumbers

Peel and halve young tender cucumbers. Roll in beaten egg and lemon juice, then roll in seasoned crumbs. Fry in hot butter, turning so they fry a good even brown. Serve on a hot dish garnished with watercress, and serve tartar sauce with the cucumbers.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Oct. 20. — After a long, "tired" summer, fashion-makers in Paris are predicting no let-up and it is most likely that tiers are going to prevail throughout the winter. There are tiers of all cuts and sizes on every kind of costume except the real sports one. They give the added trimming which is much used this season and make for the irregular hemline, which continues to be very popular.

Worth puts side-flared tiers on a charming violet evening-cape. They are flat at the back and flare at the sides, the two lower ones flaring in rather pronounced fashion. It makes a novel "pine-tree" silhouette and there is discreet silver bead embroidery on the tiers.

Tiers are also to be seen on a lovely black satin model with short princess bodice. The skirt has many of them drooping to an extremely low point at the left side where three golden ostrich tips are substituted for the usual flowers.

One of the dressmakers is using two tiers which stand out stiffly beneath the straight effect above on some of her gowns for afternoon. It gives a delightful "tierful" result. On other models the tier starts in the center at the back and mounts in front leaving a plain space at one side. The spiral tier is used on some, giving the popular back decoration which will be much in vogue this season.

Lucien Lelong uses a tier dipping in the back to break the silhouette of a charming ensemble, called "Domino," in black and white velvet.

Doucet uses a lovely spiral tier, starting at the left side of a violet wool crepe and going to a point below the hem.

Vienna — Emperor Francis Joseph's gorgeous gold-braided uniforms are to be auctioned. The asking price is $5 each.

Stick to Your Last, First!

One day I watched a plumber fix a leaky bathtub slick and clean. "There's nothing to these plumbers' tricks." The thought exploded in my head. "I'll do my own work like that and the savings buy a hat." Eventually it fell my lot. To own a tub that leaked like sin. The more I toiled the worse it got. Until at last my soul gave in. I called a plumber in my shame. He quickly fixed it up again. 'Tis always thus when humans try. To do the things they don't know how—To fly a plane around the sky. When all they've ridden is a cow. "Stick to your last," is always best. And let a tailor make your vest"—Selected.

We don't know tailoring. Or jewelry or meats. But we do know PLUMBING! TRY US!

Let's keep what we've got!

American standards of living are the highest in the world—and steadily improving.

American wages are by far the highest in the world—and steadily advancing.

American workers have the shortest hours in the world—and they are steadily becoming less.

American homes have more conveniences, more comforts, and more luxuries than any other homes in the world.

Americans own more automobiles, wear better clothes, have more amusements and more plentiful food than the citizens of any other country in the world.

Hold Herbert Hoover on the Job!

"Real wages and standards of living of our labor have improved more during the past seven and a half years of Republican rule than during any similar period in the history of this or any other country"—

says Herbert Hoover—and he knows—for, as Secretary of Commerce for Calvin Coolidge, he more than any other individual directed the business policies which made it so!

Our National progress has been built upon time-tested Republican policies—not untried and doubtful experiments. WHY CHANGE NOW?

Republican tariff protection has increased the comfort and happiness of every American citizen—man and woman—housewife and clerk—worker and farmer—merchant and manufacturer.

Republican restricted immigration has protected American wage-earners from a flood of cheap labor that would lower wages and cause unemployment.

Republican export policies have increased our foreign sales of American surplus industrial and agricultural products from $3,750,000,000 in 1922 to $4,840,000,000 in 1927—over a billion dollars increase—the means of livelihood for more than two million American families.

Why trade such proven benefits for a phantom glass of beer?

Under able management we can confidently expect these proved Republican policies to produce even greater prosperity in the future.

Let's elect as President America's best business administrator—Herbert Hoover—and keep our jobs and our prosperity.

Prosperity didn't "just happen"

As shown by Herbert Hoover's statements:

Every man has a right to ask of us whether the United States is a better place for him, his wife and his children to live in, because the Republican Party has conducted the government for nearly eight years. Every woman has a right to ask whether her life, her home, her man's job, her hopes, her happiness, will be better assured by the continuance of the Republican Party in power.

Acceptance Speech, August 11, 1928

Higher Wages

... the average of real wages is higher today than ever before. And the arduous hours of labor have decreased. We can easily prove this. As a standard of comparison, let us take the purchasing power of wages in 1913 or before the war. In purchasing power we consider both the dollars and the cost of living. Taking this standard we shall find that real wages at the height of the war inflation were about 30 per cent over 1913. Despite the great after-war slump they have risen until today they are over 50 per cent greater than before the war. Viewed in another way, while the cost of living today is about 60 points on the index above pre-war, wages are 127 above. Parallel with this increase in real wages the average hours of labor have steadily decreased.

Moreover, our real wages and our standards of living are the highest in the world. And I am again speaking of the real buying power of wages.

Newark Speech, September 17, 1928

High Standard of Living

Our workers with their average weekly wages can today buy two and often three times more bread and butter than any wage earner of Europe. At one time we demanded for our workers a "full dinner pail." We have now gone far beyond that conception. Today we demand larger comfort and greater participation in life and leisure.

Most of all, I like to remember what this progress has meant to America's children. The portal of their opportunity has been ever widening. While our population has grown but 8 per cent we have increased by 11 per cent the number of children in our grade schools, by 66 per cent the number in our high schools, and by 75 per cent the number in our institutions of higher learning.

Acceptance Speech, August 11, 1928

More Jobs and More Wages

On any calculation our exports have increased by over one billion dollars during the past seven years. This is an increase of 41 per cent since 1922 and an increase of 58 per cent over pre-war.

It is no accident which has brought about this unique situation in the United States. It is not chance that has brought this added employment for American workmen, and added markets for American farmers. Things like that don't happen.

More than two million families in the United States earn their living today producing goods for export.

and another million families earn their living in the manufacture of raw materials which we import in exchange for our exports. This increase in exports has brought a living to 500,000 families. This means more than statistics. It means higher standards of living—more jobs make more wages. Foreign trade is no artificial stimulant to employment. Its development is a vital contribution to the welfare of the American workman and the American merchant and the American farmer. I propose that we shall continue this service to our people.

Newark Speech, September 17, 1928

Cooperation Promised

I have already stated the position of the Republican Party in positive support of free collective bargaining. I have stated that it is necessary to impose restrictions on the excessive use of injunctions. It is my desire and the desire of every good citizen to ameliorate the cause of industrial conflict, to build toward that true cooperation which must be the foundation of common action for the common welfare. The first requisite to less conflict is full employment. By full employment we are steadily reducing conflict and loss.

Newark Speech, September 17, 1928

One of the oldest and perhaps the noblest of human aspirations has been the abolition of poverty. By poverty I mean the grinding of undernourishment, cold, and ignorance and fear of old age of those who have the will to work. We in America today are nearer to the final triumph over poverty than ever before in the history of any land. The poorhouse is vanishing from among us. We have not yet reached the goal but given a chance to go forward with the policies of the last eight years, and we shall soon with the help of God be in sight of the day when poverty will be banished from this nation. There is no guarantee against poverty equal to a job for every man. That is the primary purpose of the economic policies we advocate.

"Having earned my living with my own hands, I can not have other than the greatest sympathy with the aspirations of those who toil. It has been my good fortune during the past 12 years to have received the co-operation of Labor in many directions and in the promotion of many public purposes.

Acceptance Speech, August 11, 1928

Avoid Disaster

At such a time as this a change in national policies involves not—as some may lightly think—only a choice between different roads by either of which we may go forward, but a question also as to whether we may not be taking the wrong road and moving backward. The measure of our national prosperity, of our stability, of our hope of future progress at this time is the measure of what we may risk through a change in present policies. More than once in our national history a change in policies in a time of advancement has been quickly followed by a turn toward disaster.

Newark Speech, September 17, 1928
